COMMON SENSE.

When you have a sick horse in it is better to have it attended by a man fully qualified by education and experience, in preference to employing some one who has never been educated for the business and who is consequently not so ignorant of the most successful manner of caring for sick animals.

My ability can be tested by my playing me, besides referring to my diploma from the Veterinary College, Toronto, Canada, and of the most renowned of its kind in the world.

I attend, reason, any call in Hopkinsville and vicinity, will be met by telephone or otherwise.

References given, who required to be given, business men to my respectability and standing.

Dr. S. A. Hays.

Veterinary Surgeon,
John Ellis' Livery Stable,
Hopkinsville, Ky.

Wells' Office Dispensary.
